

We need your help!

As we embark on a great cause.

We are in the process of collect for Survival Kits.

We are committed to providing support and services for those in need through a project called:

This is where you come in....

Would you like to be a catalyst in helping with a great cause?

You can help us help those who are less fortunate. You can donate any items to help complete the Survival Kits.

Your donations are greatly appreciated and put toward a worthy cause!

If interested in sending a donation, please send to:
